Mr. Floyd Glover

August 13, 1951 - August 7, 2020

Floyd Glover Jr. was born to the late Floyd and Lilliemae Glover in Holly Hill, South Carolina on August 13, 1951. He was the second born of seven children, and while still very young his parents relocated from South Carolina to Washington DC, where he was raised and remained much of his life. Floyd was educated in DC Public schools, and worked as a special police officer for many years. He loved traveling and would travel south frequently to visit family and friends. Floyd enjoyed people and loved spending time with loved ones. He also enjoyed sports, music, and had a true passion for dancing. Floyd attended church regularly and so loved the Lord. He departed his earthly life and received his wings on August 7, 2020. He will be greatly missed.

He is also preceded in death by two siblings Charles Lee Glover and Christine Quattlebaum.

Those left to cherish his memories are his son; Floyd Johnny Neal Jr. of Washington DC, Three Sisters: Shirley Ann Glover of Orangeburg, SC, Neatha Glover of Washington, DC and Maggie(Rodney) Milteer of Stockbridge, GA; Three Brothers: Jody Glover Jr. of Vance, SC, Albert (Evelyn) Glover of Temple Hills, MD, and Reverend Carl Glover(Leyah) of Deltona, FL ; Two Special sisters: Lillie Hicks and Peggy Creek of Fayetteville, NC; a Special daughter, Shaneil Spencer of Fayetteville, NC; Two Special Grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other friends and family members.
