“ Gloria never knew my name, but we would give each other a big smile when we did meet up. I've known Gloria for 20+ years and she was always pleasant. Her beautiful spirit encouraged me to share with her whatever I had to give. I hadn't seen her in a while, and was very sad to learn of her passing. Rest in Peace Gloria. My condolences go out to the family. School Teacher Lisa

“ I'll never forget the day I met you August 13, 2016 and you told me it was your birthday and I gave you a couple of dollars, and then I saw you in October on my bday weekend and told you it was my birthday and you said it was your bday again so I gave you 4 singles and you gave me 1 back for my bday a lot of ppl laughed but I saw what they was to blind to see. May you continue to Rest In Paradise Queen, for you're home is fully furnished and your pain and suffering is over. God has welcomed you home, he knew this hell here wasn't worthy of such a beautiful Angel. I will never forget you and your picture will forever remain in my photo album

“ RIP Gloria she became my little buddy back in the Vicks Drive in days, I had bought her some food and a coke but she wanted the money and when I got ready to leave she said you sure are stingy I told her dont ask me again for anything, but she did and I sorta got to know her better and after that I came say she really became a friend I would always look for her at Vicks, Rob & Mickeys Cafe and the store on Hillsborough street. She loved her sweets and when she would see that little black & gray truck of mine she would just jump up and run to it because she know I always had something for her. One time back in the summer it was hot so I would see her several times a week to give her her sweets and a few dollars but this specific day when I pulled up as i was getting ready to give her some money she offered me money I was floored, she was determined to give me some money I convinced since it was so hot to keep her money so she would have plenty to drink, So we just sat there and talked and she could really talk, I really enjoyed her and was concerned about her well being, no matter what someone is going thru the kindness in them can shine and she definitely made me see things in a different perspective. Bless you Gloria you will be truly missed

“ Looking back on Ms. Glo and how so many people knew her just by her presence and conversation. She will be missed by the church family of Peace Memorial. She would visit us often during the month through our feeding program, worship services, prayer meetings, any meetings. She thought that she needed to keep our area outside the fence neat and believed it to be her task to make that happen. She will be missed by us. Some people come into our lives by happenstance and we do not know why, but Ms. Glo made us check our charitable ways and the way kindness is to be given to all people.

There will never be another "Ms. Glo". Rest is yours now with no more cold, rainy days and unkind folk. Mary Haley, Peace Memorial Christian Church

“ I remember when I first came to Fayetteville, I had an encounter with Gloria. She frightened me because I had no idea who she was. I was assured that she was okay -- an icon in Fayetteville. I would see her in various places in town, but mostly around the Murchison Road-Hillsboro Street corridor. We saw her a couple of weeks ago, sitting on the curb at Hillsboro and Cumberland. She will definitely be missed.

“ To the family of Ms.Gloria J. Banks, as I reminisce of her these scriptures come to my mind and they are as follows:

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (NIV)

1. There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
2. a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,
3. a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
4. a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
5. a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
6. a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,
7. a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,
8. a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for PEACE.

We all know, Gloria Jean is at "Peace". No more Murchison to Hillsboro Road. Gloria Jean has taken up her bed on these thou streets and are now finally at peace.

Respectfully submitted, Mrs. Wanda McCoy

“ You Never Said Goodbye
by Unknown

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

Get your rest Baby, I'll see you later
