

Mr. Adolph Moses Brown

June 21, 1936 - January 26, 2021

Adolph Moses Brown was the youngest of three children of the late Bennett Brown, Albertha Dorsey and Aliska Brown. He was born June 21, 1936 and passed away January 26, 2021. Adolph was born in New Orleans, LA, and raised in New York City. He was educated in the New York Public School System and later obtained two Associates degrees. After high school, he joined the Army where he eventually attained the rank of Staff Sergeant after 21 years of service. Adolph received two (2) Purple Hearts and a Bronze Star and retired from the U.S. Army and the State of NC.

He met his wife, Delma of 58 years, while stationed at Fort Bragg NC. Adolph lived in North Carolina most of his adult life but returned to visit his hometown of New Orleans every chance he got. He loved life and enjoyed spending time with his friends and family. He was full of energy and loved to keep moving, especially dancing. He never met a stranger and was always the life of every party he attended. He enjoyed sports, but he was a Carolina Panthers Fan.

Adolph is survived by his wife, Delma Gavin Brown, children: Melton P. Brown (Sa-Ard), Aliska (Lisa) Brown, Zina G. Brown-Sigmon (Darrell), Karen B. Franklin (Dexter) and Adrienne B. Charleston (Donnie), nieces/"daughters" Brinda G. Locke (Kenneth) and Linda G. Thompson

(Samuel), grandchildren, Daquin L. Franklin, Maleek L. Brown, Aaron P. Brown, Zachery G. Sigmon, Devin J. Franklin and Stephen P. Sigmon, great grandchild, Xavier Franklin, sister, Lois Harris, brother-in-Law, Clinton L. Gavin, niece/” sister Karen Tyler, beloved niece: Donna Brown, Dawn Goodall and Myra Gavin, and nephew Ronald R. Brown, a host of other family members and many friends that loved him through the years.
