“ I will always remember how faithful Brother McKinnon was. Even in the advance stages of the illness, he praised and worshipped our great Jesus as though there were no health issues at all. Our Brother loved Jesus with all his heart and wasn't afraid to show people his faith and love for God. I pray that I will be half as strong as he was and look forward to praising God in heaven along side my brother. He was still as strong in his faith when he crossed over to his heavenly mansion. Brother McKinnon will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.
