“ Dearest Family of Mrs. Alice Wine: TO GOD BE GLORY as I clearly recall greeting one, like blood family to me, after a service where we were graced with Evangelist Nancy Gonzalez' (Mrs. Wine's niece) GOD~given message. Mrs. Wine gracefully greeted me by acknowledging me by my last name as she often did, and I respectfully welcomed the sound of my name coming from her mouth as music to my ears. My overall recollection of Mrs. Wine is that she cared about us as students and was very proud of all of our achievements. She was truly a part of laying solid, indelible foundations, to this day, that still remain as positive even in our now senior citizen lives. "JESUS IS OUR COMFORTER!" Condolences are extended to the family with absolute assurance that our "one~and~only" Mrs. Wine is forever missed and never forgotten. Much Love, Dr. Nancy L. Blue, Class of 1972, "TO GOD BE GLORY!"

“ I loved Mrs. Wine she taught me at Sr. High and she did not play with you either, I made the mistake of wearing bracelets in her class oh my God you would have thought the world came to a complete end, she couldn't stand it and had no problems making me take them off. I am truly going to miss her. Rest easy beautiful.

“ My phenomenal teacher, my wonderful friend, and, of course, my cousin that I learned about at age 54. She and I have grown even closer this past year, and she made me feel more like a son or nephew than a cousin. It would not surprise me at all if she was already walking the streets of heaven and researching the history of its various amenities. Enjoy yourself my dear friend! And leave the light on for me! With an enduring love and heartfelt appreciation, “D”. 💔🌹🕊️
