“ Alvin was my platoon sergeant two times when I was in the army. He was more than my boss; he was a friend, a brother, and my black daddy. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I was in Desert Storm with him when had to make an emergency trip back home because of his wife. I continued to pray for him and his family then, and I still pray for his family now. I offer you all my deepest heartfelt condolences.

“ Uncle Alvin...I didn't get to see you as much as I would have liked, but I will never forget you. I'll always remember the SURPRISE visit to ALABAMA, and the phone calls. You wouldn't believe some of the things that has changed since the last time I seen. I hated to hear the news that you had to leave us, but God had different plans, and called you home. I will remember all of the memories, and maybe you can look down at your sister's and their families every now and then too. RIP...fly high...I LOVE YOU. Jamillah
