“ Even the death cannot erased the wonderful memories you have of your loved one. These memories will be instrumental in helping the family through this time of grief and sorrow. Another thing that can be of comfort is reflecting on the words Jesus said to Martha, the sister of Lazarus, before he restored him to life. At john 11:25 you will find these faith-strengthening words: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." What a wonderful hope to have, the hope of seeing your dead loved ones again. The eight recorded accounts recorded in the Bible provide undeniable proof that this is a legitimate hope. You can trust in its fulfillment because God who cannot lie will make it a reality. Please take comfort in that hope. So sorry for your loss.
