“ Aunt Ann was the single kindest lady I ever me. She was a wonderful wife and Mother. Whenever they Family came to Poughkeepsie they always visited/connected with Family. Had they not made those long drives I might not have me my Cousins: Rita, Ken and Ray. I am saddened for your loss but I know Aunt Ann created delicate memories that will always be in your heart and in mine! I love you Family. I will be thinking of you even more on Friday. Sincerely, Gladys L. Boone in Poughkeepsie, N.Y.
Thanks for sharing.

PS

“ To my cousins, Rita, Ken, and Ray I am so sorry about the loss of your Mom, my Aunt. I know this is a difficult time for you. Please know you have my sympathy and support. I remember my Aunt Andre when we were kids living at 525 Ford Street, Clarksville, TN. My siblings, your cousins, Rudy, Beverly, James Michael, and me, would stop to pick y'all up on the way to Cobb Elementary school. Aunt Andre "ALWAYS" fed us breakfast (pancakes and farina). She welcomed us every morning. These memories and others I will always hold close. May God be with y'all and keep y'all close. Hugs, Paulette Suggs
