“ You will always be an intricate part of my family whether here or there for I have always loved you just like my own son. You were both united in life and now your love for one another reunites you once again in death. I know Tae is smiling hard because he now has his brother to share his eternal life in God's Kingdom with him. Until we all meet again, you and Tae continue to whisper in God's ear to protect and watch over us. My boys are playing on God's Team Now!!!

“ I met Nelson at BCT (Basic Combat Training) he was and will always be one tough Soldier in my eyes. Always had us laughing and was always there to stop something from happening or he be the one about to start something. Like they taught us in BCT, soldier don't die, we just regroup else where. Until that Day comes that we are all together again, R.I.P Soldier.

“ My thoughts and prayers to the family. Andre was one of my mentees and friends. We spent many days talking about his future and where he wanted to be in life. We spoke about that very topic just a few days ago. Like me, he was a clothes fanatic and we often shared dressing tips and fashion ideas. He was masterful at mixing patterns and color combos. I am really going to miss this young man. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Sharon and family. I cannot imagine your grief right now but I do know that as a Mother, we don't expect to lose our precious children and at such a young age. My prayers are with you and the entire family at this time. All I can say is, God needed another angel and he chose Andre. Keep looking up. I love you.

“ We the 881st Engineer Support Company Maintenance Platoon, SFC Clifford Earl, SSG Patricia Vanscoyk and myself (SSG Jonathan Belton) mourn to the passing and friendship of one of our beloved brethren and comrades as life is so uncertain, for God has called this Soldier from duty. No words are adequate enough to express the sorrow and brokenness you all feel at this time. We humbly send out heart filled love to you all during this time. As it is written, “Let not your heart be troubled for in my Father’s House are many mansions...” We pray that God heals and delivers each and every one of your hearts as He mends the brokenness. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal, for, we are confident I say and willing to rather be absent from this earthly tabernacle is to be present with the Lord.
