“ I have been an oncology nurse for 19 years now. I have met and cared for a handful of patients that have left an impression for years to come, Angela is one of those patients. Angela was kind and thoughtful. She had a smile that was contagious. She loved her children and spoke of them often. Sharing pictures and stories of her girls, I could hear the joy and pride in her voice. Angela's faith was often referenced when we would talk about challenging times, she leaned on Him for support. She was so loved and cared for by her dear husband, Ricky was with her at each appointment - something that is not often possible, but he made it the normal. I will miss Angela dearly, our whole team will. I was so honored to be a part of her life.

Sending love to you and your family!

Sending condolences to the family of this special soul that made a mighty impact on my life! Though tears flow from the human place, joy is heartfelt in my soul knowing that the divine granted eternal healing! She will be forever remembered by this co-worker. Never will forget our shared history of serving as Principals at Sunnyside ES in Cumberland County Schools and being School Turnaround Principals in Guilford County Schools. God grant the family peace that passes all understanding as you journey through this valley experience. Pastor Lei Washington

“We are truly hit hard and fully saddened by this. Angela did an amazing job with the schools she turned around, and we were very close to her during her time (and ours) at Fairview Elementary in High Point, NC. She was definitely the best for that school and all of the schools she worked with!! Our deepest condolences to the family.

*Love Always,
Alissa, Kendrick, and Zhaishay Evans*

“ I highly respected her as a friend and Principal. She helped me tremendously when my husband passed away. I saw her a few years ago at a Priscilla Scriver woman's conference. We got to hug and catch up. Her early entrance into heaven has left me shaken to the core! I will miss you terribly and please say hi to my husband, Bill.

“ Angela succeeded me and Larissa Cortes as the lead admin at ROCS. I had no qualms about her ability to lead the school which I had founded, with excellence and grace. When I returned to serve ROCS as a BOD member, I did so with a peaceful and calm heart, knowing Angela had won over the families with her skill, grace, and heart. The world is devoid now of a great leader and wonderful woman.
