

Mrs. Anita Delores Porter Rolax

December 28, 1979 - April 24, 2021

Anita Rolax was born December 28, 1979 to the late Mattie Campbell and James Bone. She was called to be with the Lord early Saturday morning on April 24, 2021. She was the third eldest of four siblings.

Anita received her education in the Cumberland County School System. She graduated from Terry Sanford High School. She worked for the school system for a short time before moving to Georgia. She returned to Fayetteville where she acquired employment at Zaxby's in Hope mills until God called her home. Anita was a member of Abiding Faith and Truth Church. She was a faithful member. She worked in numerous departments of the church. Nita Boo, as she was affectionately known, was tender hearted, lovable toward her Pastor and all the church members.

Surviving to emulate her life are her husband, Antonio Rolax; three sisters, Sebrina Jackson (Lawrence), Teresa Smith (Carlos) and Rosetta Bone, all of Fayetteville, NC; two aunts and one uncle, Matilda Daniels of Georgia and Curtis China (Margie); mother and father-inlaws, Stanley (Kimberly) Hope and Patissia (Ronnie) Childs of Georgia; four nieces and nephews, all of Fayetteville; two special mentions, Tywanda Thomas and Brandy Holyfield who were like sisters; a host of friends and relatives.
