“Ann Mohamed was like a second mother to me. God rest her soul! While my Aunt Gwen raised me, her best friend Ann was always right there beside her, helping shape the woman I would become. As a little girl, I didn't fully realize it at the time, but I was constantly learning from Ann watching her, admiring her, and quietly absorbing the way she carried herself.

Some of my fondest memories are of going to her home and being in awe of her beautiful space filled with elegant furniture, stunning accessories, and her signature touches of class. Ann showed me what it meant to be a refined, confident, and graceful woman. From her impeccable etiquette, luxurious fur coats, and sparkling crystal glassware, to her bold, colorful outfits and statement jewelry. she embodied elegance in every way.

She and my Aunt Gwen gave me experiences I will cherish forever. The many shopping trips where we picked out beautiful dresses and church attire, the dinners we attended, and the moments that felt so special and grown-up to me as a young girl. From. Traveling buddies, work buddies, Eastern Star, to so much more. Even hosting one of my baby shower at her complex - I will never forget all the things she has done for me and my family.

I also remember going to work with Ann and my Aunt Gwen and those moments made me feel so important. I used to joke that I was the “poster child” for Atlanta Teachers Credit Union when I got older. Seeing those to give 100 percent to that company was what I only know and do as an adult. Ann would even give me little tasks, making me feel like her personal assistant. In those moments, I felt seen, valued, and loved like I was truly hers.

She treated me as if I were her own daughter, and that bond is something I will carry with me always.

Ann Mohamed was a remarkable woman who left a lasting impression on so many lives. She will be deeply missed. The love and friendship she shared with my Aunt Gwen was something truly Ann Mohamed was like a second mother to me.

“ My Auntie Ann was not just my Auntie, she was my Best Friend! We talked 3-4 times a week! There was nothing I wouldn't do for her! She was a Strong Independent Woman, that would speak her mind and give you the shirt off her back! Her transition from her earthly being set's heavy! I know she watches over me, along with the other family members that met her at the Gates of Heaven! Gone too soon in my head! Though in my heart I know God Has Everything Thing Thoroughly Thought Out! AMEN! RIP IN Rest AUNTIE! Love Always and Forever, Your Niece Rita Malaika Mosley
