

Ms. Annie Lee McKinnon-Blue

December 18, 1933 - July 26, 2019

Annie Lee McKinnon Blue departed this life on Friday July 26, 2019, 5:56pm at UNC Hospital, Hillsborough, North Carolina. The last remaining child of nine born to the late French & Cornelia McKinnon.

Annie will be forever remembered by her five children, James Larry McKinnon (Jackie McKinnon) Raleigh, N.C. Janet A. Melvin Charlotte, N.C. Bernette Ann Melvin Pitts Fayetteville, N.C. Terry Melvin (deceased) Phyllis B. Galbreath (James Galbreath) Charlotte, N.C. Stepchildren Robert Blue (Sandra Blue) Newburgh, N.Y. Alma Bowman (Adam Bowman) Atlanta, G.A. Katie Melvin (deceased) Twenty grandchildren and Eighteen great grandchildren.

In her youth, Mommy was a Master Tailor and began her career as a high school student at Armstrong High in home economics class where the teacher taught her to sew. She continued to refine her craft after high school by attending Fashion design school in New Jersey; there she learned many aspects of design and specifically pattern design. Mom held numerous managerial positions with clothing manufacturers during a time when no women were in management. In 1969, she opened her first business LaVelle Fashions in Fayetteville, N.C. with 3 businesses to follow. She was featured in several industry publications praising her talent having made a Smoking jacket for Singer/Actor Dean Martin. The Master Tailor ended her career at the Men's Wearhouse in Fayetteville N.C. Her clients loved her and she loved them. She would assure that every garment that she touched would fit as if it were custom made.

There is now a Master Tailor in charge taking care of all the garments in heaven and you will truly be missed.
