

Mr. Asa Christian Gray

March 15, 2007 - July 28, 2024

Celebrating the Life Of

Asa Christian Gray was born on March 15, 2007 in Fayetteville North Carolina and passed away at UNC Chapel Hill on July 28, 2024. He is survived by his mother and father, Jamie and Jeremy Brown as well as sisters Cierra Tharpe, Destiny Rhodes, and Myelle Brown, nephew Migi Scarborough, siblings in love Ciara Robertson and Tone Scarborough, grandparents Jimmy Tharpe, Lori Tharpe and Dorothy Brown, aunts Crystal Tharpe and Edith Tharpe and cousins Arrieanna Tharpe and Ka'Mila Tharpe.

For a long time, Asa was the only boy in his immediate family. Full of life, laughter and a little bit of mischief and adventure, he kept everyone on their toes. As a young child, you were likely to find him jumping off a high piece of furniture, hiding in the dryer, splashing in the toilet or greasing himself up with blue magic hair grease. Someone always had to have eyes on Ace. As he got older Asa began to develop a love for outdoor activities and sports. He enjoyed gaming, fishing, biking, kayaking, paintball, and working out.

Asa's personality was that of someone who never met a stranger. He had a way of befriending people everywhere he went. Asa was full of jokes and loved putting a smile on the faces of others. If there was a good time and food to be had, you could count Asa in. He understood the importance of love, friendship, and creating meaningful bonds. Asa would often contact his loved ones just to check in on them. At the young age of 17, Asa achieved a good life balance. He maintained academic excellence as a member of The Honor Society, while working part-time, helping around the house, spending time with loved ones, and cultivating his relationship with God. Asa was looking forward to completing his high school credits early and pursuing an education in electrical technology.

Though Asa will be missed, we take comfort in knowing that one of his last photos was taken at the altar in the presence of our Heavenly Father.

“ I remember Asa walking into my church Solid Rock United Pentecostal on Sunday July 21st with his three friends and coming right to the front. When Pastor Doublin gave the alter call after the service they all went to the alter and kneeled on their knees doing a group hug before God. In my mind I thought this is something you just don't see anymore. I remember praying for them and telling them after service that this was ordained by God himself. I knew in my heart that God was working. I knew in my heart Asa and his young friends were very polite and respectable young men. Sometimes we don't understand why things happen the way they do but I know God had a plan. I pray God touches all hearts during this time of great loss and sadness, and I am praying for the family and friends.
