

Mrs Asya Jameela Bryant

September 19, 1991 - July 28, 2019

Asya Jameela Bryant's earthly journey began on September 19th, 1991 in Moore County, NC where she was born.

In 2010 Asya proudly graduated from Douglas Byrd High School in Fayetteville, NC. She attended William Peace University and St. Augustine's University in Raleigh, NC. Asya worked for Barwell Road Parks and Recreation in Raleigh, NC and Fayetteville Parks and Recreation in Fayetteville, NC where she enjoyed working with children.

In 2016 she met the love of her life, Jermel Bryant. A year later he proposed and the two would become one on October 29th 2017 and later move to Korea where Asya became a substitute teacher.

Asya was passionate about helping others. She was outspoken and supported those doing work in the LGBTQ Community, Women Rights, and Civil Rights for all.

Asya loved to laugh, work with kids, make-up, fashion, modeling, traveling. Most of all she loved talking to her friends and family.

Asya impacted all she came across and will be remembered for being selfless, having love and care for others. She left this world unexpectedly to be home with the lord on July 28th 2019, in Pyeongtaek, Korea, at the age of 27.

Asya was an extraordinary woman, wife and an even better daughter to Al and Tyra and big sister to Keane.

Asya is survived by her husband, Jermel Bryant; parents, Alfred and Tyra Ellis of Fayetteville, NC; in-laws, Gary and Linda Bryant of Fayetteville, NC; stepson, Joel Bryant of Fayetteville, NC; brother, Keane Q. Sauls of Queens, NY; grandparents Thomas Cauthen and Josie Martinez of Monroe, NC; Grandmother, Doris Chisum; uncles, George E. Holley of Fayetteville, NC, Thomas Martinez of Monroe, NC, Christopher Martinez of Monroe, NC and Steven Dahl of Fayetteville, NC, and a host of other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her father, Donovan Chisum of Lumberbridge, NC and her grandmother, Ruby J. Bobbitt of Fayetteville, NC.

Flowers can be sent to Colvin Funeral Home, 2010 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, NC 28301, telephone: (910) 488-6047.

Condolences can be sent to <https://www.hmcolvin.com/obituaries/Asya-Bryant/>

The family would like to thank the U.S. Army and Healing Touch Ministries for their efforts, care and dedication.

“ Asya as I look at your picture I think about the last time that I saw you which was 10 months ago. Our conversation was about the well being of your brother not knowing that would be my last time that I would talk to you. One thing I think about that we had the opportunity to embrace with a hug and talk. You will truly be miss and there will always be memories of you in my heart for you. With much love!!!

“ To the family of Asya, I extend my deepest condolences to you all during the untimely passing of your beloved. To Jermel, I pray God gives you peace as you journey through this rough time. No words can take away your void, but I pray God wraps his arms around you like never before and lead you wherever you shall go. You both were so beautiful together.....may you hold that in your heart forever and a lifetime!
