“ I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Audrey. My condolences go out to Chris and the family. Although i knew Audrey wasn't in good health. But she was a fighter. A very strong woman. We went to Newbold elementary school together and Washington Drive. We ran into each other every now and then as we became adults. And Audrey always had something good to talk about. I will always remember her kindness and her laugh. She was a wonderful person. And she will truly be missed. I know God is a Good God. And God Welcome Audrey home. Where she can walk all over Gods heaven.

“ Sincere condolences and prayers to the family and loved ones. I am a classmate of Audrey. We have known each other since elementary school. We shared some fun times and many laughs throughout the years.

Over the past few years Audrey sent positive and inspirational messages to me daily, I am certainly going miss that. Rest peacefully dear!
