

Ms. Autumn Alexandria Kirkpatrick

June 29, 1996 - December 19, 2022

Autumn Alexandria Kirkpatrick was born June 29, 1996, in Cumberland County, North Carolina to Bobby and Joan Cherry Kirkpatrick. At the time of her death, she was 26 years old, living in Colorado Springs, Colorado. According to the website Mama Natural Names for Babies at www.mamanatural.com, the name Autumn means “Arguably the most beautiful of seasons, with cozy nights, stunning leaves, and joyful gatherings.” These words describe Autumn distinctly. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved her daughter, family and friends, and opened her heart to those needing to be loved. Due to being in a military family, Autumn was able to attend schools in NC, SC, and Colorado. She graduated in 2014 from Liberty High School in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Being the supportive person that she was, naturally she would choose a major as a Medical Technician at Pikes Peak Community College. In addition to taking medical courses, her first job was replanting trees at the Waldo Canyon Fire Burn Scar, which she truly enjoyed. Other places of employment, throughout the years, included working at the Academy School District 20, Starbucks, and Comfort Dental. Her last employment was at Mortgage Solutions Financial, as a mortgage appraisal, in which she enjoyed learning new things to enhance her experience portfolio. She always volunteered, in the areas of her skills, for whatever she can, to make things better. Even as a little girl, she taught her sister and brother verbal sign language for communication. As a teenager, she cooked for them and took them places. She was brave & courageous; yet, humble in many ways. Making her day was about making others laugh & smile.

Autumn loved to dance, sing in talent shows, cook, and sing karaoke with her now deceased best friend Vanessa Anderson. She had so much love for her daughter Paiten. She was her mother’s heart and every breath was about loving her beautiful, smart, energetic daughter. Autumn enjoyed past-times with her sister Allyssa, her sister-in-law Daryl, her brothers Christian and Kameron; as well as her stepbrothers Sebastian, Adrian, Kayden, and Kaleb.

“ 2 Trees in the San Juan National Forest in Durango, Colorado and 2 Trees in Pisgah National Forest in the Appalachian Mountains have been planted this year in Autumn's memory. This has been a long, trying, difficult year trying to endure Autumn's death. It's now her one year anniversary and we're taking baby steps to get some type of normalcy. We miss and love her deeply.

“ This girl was my best friend. I had quite a few friends growing up, but after high school, our friendship blossomed into something special. We spent almost every day together, birthdays, late nights and even bad times. I watched her grow up into becoming a mom for little P. After Autumn met Vanessa, they ended up spending a lot of time together, at first I was almost jealous but I realized that they both have been in a position that I never had. They loved each other in a way that I couldn't understand. Not until I become a mom at least. I put that selfishness aside and realized they were right for each other in this time of life. We had both grown up even more, I got married and moved away, and Autumn needed someone like Vanessa in her life. I never resented either of them. They both had the kindest hearts. I'm heart broken it ended the way it did. But Autumn will always and forever be my absolute best friend. I would do anything to bring these moments back to reality. I would never let go. But life has other plans. I pray to see her soul again soon. I love you Autumn. I love your family. Rest easy sweet girl ❤️
