“ Ma Barbara, I'm going to miss your warm hugs, loving smile, and motherly wit. You took me under your wing and told me I was your "daughter" at Well of Living Waters. And you most definitely treated me as such. Thank you for the discipline, love, and laughter. I will always love you and thank God for sharing His angel with us for the time that He allowed us to know you! R.I.P. Ma!

“ Aunt Barbara Kay you were one of a kind and I will always cherish the times I spent with you from childhood to adulthood. I knew I would always get a good laugh when you were around. This does not seem real that you are no longer here in the flesh, but I know that God will get us all through this in time. Love always Shemeka
