

Mrs. Barbara Ann Harris

October 14, 1967 - December 10, 2023

Mrs. Barbara Ann Harris, cherished as a devoted wife, loving mother, adored grandmother (affectionately known as Nana), and daughter of the late Alfred "Bob" Walker and Geneva Grant, entered this world on October 14, 1967, in Lodge, South Carolina. A proud alumni of Newburgh Free Academy (NEA) in Newburgh, NY, she further pursued her education at Central Texas College in Killeen, TX. Barbara dedicated over three decades of her career to government service, culminating in her role as a Medical Support Assistant (MSA) at the Veterans Affairs (VA) Hospital in Fayetteville, NC. Renowned for her compassionate and generous spirit, Barbara was deeply committed to her family, friends, and colleagues. She relished traveling with her husband, engaging in heartfelt conversations with her mother, participating in line dancing with her "140 Rhythm" family, and above all, cherishing moments with her grandchildren. Barbara's legacy is carried on by her husband, Anthony Keith Harris, Sr., her mother Geneva Grant, her brother James Grant, her children India Latoya Watts and Anthony Keith Harris, Jr., and her beloved grandchildren Lamont, Latrell, Sahnai, Anthony III, Joy, Jayden, Ameer, and Ava. Her circle of close friends, including Vera Newson, Sharon Yarbrough, and Lisa Jones, also hold her memory dear. Barbara was predeceased by her father Alfred "Bob" Walker, her father-in-law Charlie Harris, and her mother-in-law Mamie Lee Harris. Lovingly Submitted, Family

“ Barbara and I were very good friends in Highschool. I remember many times hanging out after school, going to her house and talking and laughing and just having a good time. I am so dishearten by her passing and wish I could be there in person. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I was in my brother Keith and sis Barbra wedding back in 1988! We go way back. I last saw sis this summer when they opened their home to me when I had to come to Fayetteville for my grandmother funeral. I got up to leave for airport and my bro KC said barb brought you a sandwich last night so you would have something to eat for your trip. That's the type of person she was. Always thinking of others and making sure they were good! This is hard! My brother loves his wife and anyone who knows KC knows this as a fact! This has been a tough road bro but sis is in no more pain and though I know this is excruciating for you, rejoice in that fact! I love you more than you will ever know and we gonna link up soon. To my niece and nephew and those grands we will keep barb spirit ALIVE always!

“ I met Ms. Barbara at my first VA job in Fayetteville. We were both MSAs at the time. She took me under her wing and trained me, kept me sane at work. Man...she talked me out of quitting so many times. She gave sound financial advice, she encouraged and mentored me. She was the most compassionate, patient and kindhearted person but at the same time she didn't take any crap from folks. She was beautiful and stylish. She loved her family and close friends more than anything in this world. I marveled at the person she was and how she carried herself with strength and grace. I'm so deeply saddened by her loss: the world is a little dimmer with her gone. I hope wherever she is now that she is at peace. To the Harris family, I am so sorry for your loss and my heart is with you all.

“ I am sorry I never met this beautiful woman. But I know what she meant to her husband Keith. Keith spoke of her so often at work I felt I did know her. Keith, I know you and your family are hurting so please lean on all that care for you brother! We love and care for you! you and family lost someone that was deeply imbedded in your family dynamic and can't be replaced but love and memories are valuable tools too. Keep her memory alive by sharing the stories only families can tell.
