“ To the Family this may be late but the one thing i wanted to stress about Barbara, she made sure her children came to church. They joined the usher board the junior choir, and she always told me. Even though she may not attend as she should, she was going to make sure her children stayed in church and they did until they became teenagers.

“ We are so sadden about the passing of my dear sister, and sister-in- love. May God comfort and heal our broken hearts as we go through this journey that we all have to take. Death is hard, and grieving our loved ones is harder. God knows we loved Barbara and we rest in the assurance that we will see each other again, in Jesus Christ name Amen.

“ To Ola and her siblings and husband, I meet Barbara when her mom Ms. Jernery (please forgive me if I spelled her mother's name wrong), but she was attending New Hope when we were in our hey day. Her mother was sooooo sweet and sooooo soft spoken. Barbara had her mother's sweet spirit and disposition and her heart was always for the least if these. Barbara was always true to herself she was who she was like it or leave it. We got to be friends back in the day and I always kept her in the highest regard because She Loved Her Children with an Unconditional Love just like a mom and her own mother. May the God of Our Creation surround you family with the Love and Comfort that only he can give. Love you part of the New Hope Jr Choir Members Ola and her Brothers, those were some good days.

“ To Barbara's family,

I would like to share how special Barbara was to me. Many years ago, as a little girl, I left the comfort of my family to enter school for the first time. Being physically different, I was often teased. No one wanted to hold my hand, choose me for a game, or sit beside me. But Barbara was different. She was one of the first along with 2 others to grab my hand during a game of Old MacDonald or Ring Around the Roses. She chose me to be on her team, and in doing so, she helped build my self-confidence, acceptance, and trust.

I want to express my deep gratitude and love for the kindness Barbara showed me all those years ago and for the impact it had on my life.
