“ Barbara was my mother's roommate at Cumberland Nursing. She always kept us informed of things, good & bad, going on. We have been blessed to have her in with my mother these years. My mother & Barbara shared a special bond. We included Barbara in our family too. Barbara watched over my mother & we thank her for that.

Barbara loved her children & grandchildren very much. Not one time did I go that she didn't mention her children or grandchildren. She loved you all so much.

She also loved Cashew nuts & reminded me when it was time for more.

We all will miss her very much.

God bless you all,

Barbara and I were in the talent show at Montclair singing a song "Stop In The Name of Love" by the Supremes. We got second place. We hung out together and called each when the bus as on the way. We both lived on Lindale Court in Chestnut Hills. Me, Michelle Reeves, Barbara and Mary Elder (Miller) would hang out at school. I lived at the end of the street and we would go to Hollywood Heights to get candy from Sherry Purvis store. She will be missed. Gloria Blount Dickson
