“ As a brand new teacher at Ann Chesnutt Middle School, I had no idea what I was doing. So thankful that Barbara Willis was my co-teacher and took me under her wing. She prayed with me before every school day and gave advice and guidance with love. She also modeled for me how a great teacher should manage a classroom and command respect while also showing love to the kids. She is definitely hearing “Well done thou good and faithful servant “ right now. Thank you God for allowing my life to intersect with hers at such a critical point. Our loss is heaven’s gain.
