“ To the entire English and Arnold families, Gladys and I send our deepest sympathy, and offer prayers on your behalf during this time of your loss. We will always remember what a lovely and dedicated lady she was. I especially am grateful to have her touch my life as she and her husband Bro. Jackson P. shared the gospel with me while I was stationed at Ft. Bragg. Subsequently I was baptized into Christ. She welcomed me into their home on Sundays and we enjoyed wonderful fellowship, and some of the finest cooking around. And oh, that pound cake and ice cream, seem like I can still taste it now. I also remember how she welcomed my wife when she came to spend one summer with me. Sorry we can't be with you during this time, but know that we are praying that God will bless you with his comfort love, and grace. May the sweet memories that you have of her help sustain you in the days ahead.

- Much love, Bro. and Sis. John Branch, Northwest church of Christ, Huntsville, Alabama
