

Mrs. Blanche L. Coleman

November 8, 1945 - June 4, 2020

Blanche Lorraine Richardson was born on November 8, 1945 to the late Florence and Mannie Richardson in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was the youngest of six siblings; Charles Richardson (deceased), Ruth Johnson, James Richardson (deceased), Florence Bingham (deceased/James Bingham, Sr.), and Milton Richardson (deceased/Sylvia Richardson). Blanche was formally educated in Philadelphia Public School System. She accepted Christ at an early age at Jones Memorial Baptist Church in Philadelphia, PA. When she and David relocated to Fayetteville, NC, she joined Spring Branch A.M.E. Zion Church in Tar Heel, where she served as a Deaconess and chairperson of the Board of Life Members. She was united in holy matrimony to David Coleman on December 30, 1965. To this union three sons were born, Jeffrey, David, and Jarrad. Jarrad, her youngest son preceded her in death and welcomed her to her eternal home on Thursday, June 4, 2020. Blanche leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her devoted husband, David; two sons, Jeffrey of Raeford and David (Kelly) of Aberdeen; five grandchildren, David D., Dannielle, Donnell, Patrick, and Max; three great grandchildren, Da-Marion, Dayonna and Carter; one sister, Ruth Johnson; seven nieces; seven nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. She was an avid bowler and fisher and a faithful member of the Triple B Ranch Horseback Riding Club in Tar Heel. She was devoted to her husband, children and family but most of all Blanche loved God with all her heart.

“ All who have had the opportunity to share moments with Aunt Blanche know she will be sorely missed and forever loved. Gone but never forgotten. I pray for strength for the family to whom she was a great matriarch. May she rest peacefully at home with our loved ones that have proceeded her.
