Bobby Eugene Alford was born on February 13, 1952, in Robeson County. He graduated from Eastside High School in Saint Pauls, North Carolina. Bobby served in the United States Army and was employed at Restonic Mattress Co. in Fayetteville, North Carolina, as well as at Pepsi Co. in Durham, North Carolina, where he worked as a Warehouse Supervisor. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends; he lived his life to the fullest. Bobby was an avid fan of the LA Lakers and Duke men's basketball. However, his greatest passion was for the Dallas Cowboys. He was extremely devoted to the team, and speaking ill of the Cowboys could provoke a strong reaction from him. Only his mother and siblings were allowed to call him by his nickname, "Billy Joe." Bobby is preceded in death by his mother, Ms. Ella Alford, Shirley Alford (Sister), Verontina Smith (Nephew), and Loretta Alford (Wife). His life will be cherished by his sisters Mary McDowell (Reginald) and Sherry Salazar (Edward) of Fayetteville, NC. Special Nephew and Niece: Jay Alford & Zhacinta Salazar Special Friend: Lucida Wilson Daughter: Ann Moyer (Adam) Grandson: Conner Moyer And a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends

“ It saddens my heart to know I've lost my cousin. With heartfelt sympathy I'm sending my love and condolences. You may have left us, but know you're never forgotten. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. To Pam and all of Bobby other siblings, know God is near the broken hearted, even though your hearts are broken now, know God is near. I know you lost Auntie not long ago, but you will get through this. God had you all.

Sincerely,
Lou Pearl Henry
