

Mr. Bobby Lee Miller

March 10, 1963 - August 1, 2023

1963 a year like no other — especially for the Miller family. You see that was the year that Bobby Lee "Whala" Miller and his twin sister, Barbara Ann Miller were born in Fayetteville, North Carolina to the parents to the late John Andrew Miller and the late Louise McArthur. Bobby and Barbara Ann along with big brother Johnny would be raised by his Aunt Evelena Wright due to the loss of their parents John Miller in 1963 and Louis McArthur in 1968. Bobby is the little brother to the late Arthur Lee Kemp, the late Vivian McArthur, and his big sister, Dorothy Robinson. Bobby was raised alongside of his cousins, Milton and Charles better known as the original dirt road boys. He would attend Terry Sanford High School, where he played linebacker and was known as a hard hitter, he would graduate in 1982. Bobby worked a few jobs starting out as a meat cutter and a bagger at Sam's Supermarket. Then he would go on to be a sereed operator as well as a jackman with Highland Paving for over 20 years. In 1982, Bobby would be blessed by entering fatherhood with his first baby girl, Jodielle Baptiste followed by Covaris Hepburn in 1984 and Deon Miller in 1988. Bobby was the grandfather of 11 grandchildren, Jasmin (19), Hilary (18), Amiyah (17), Franklin (17), Davion (16), Malik (15), Covaris Jr. (14), Ariel (12), Justise (9), Oniya (S) and Desiree (18). Bonus children from the late Ms. Doris (Ann) are Walter, Virginia, Michael, and Angela. Bonus grandchildren are Brittany, William, J'kyvious, Dillion, Niko and Lyric. In hindsight, who would have known that he would love and deposit gifts to several generations - - gifts of determination, tenacity, strength, wisdom, and humor. Bobby, better known as Whala or Uncle Bobby to his Haymount Hill family, is survived by siblings, Dorothy, Mae, Milton, Johnny, Charles, and Barbara Ann; three children and eleven grandchildren, four bonus children, six bonus grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and countless “ Bobby, was a good friend, a great friend. We shared alot of laughs together in highschool. He was kinda my protector and whispering secrets about what was going on, off Branson street. Bobby and Angelina and I would walk home from school together. He will be missed. My sweet childhood friend. My sincere condolences to the family. Teena Crystal Hines-Cook
