“ Brittany LaTosha King, 34, of Fayetteville gained her heavenly wings on July 29, 2024. [SEP]Brittany leaves behind her family, other loved ones, and so many friends. Her Father, Mr Victor, was her everything. The love she had for her dad was unwavering and he was her world. The other love of her life had four legs....her Fur baby Rock. He was definitely her pride & joy. Brittany also loved basketball. Watching it. Playing it. Whether it was a college or professional game on, she would watch it and fuss at the tv like she was coaching. Her love for the game ran deep. And when football season was in session...all she cared about was her Dallas Cowboys!! [SEP]Brittany made a lasting impression on every single person she met. She didn't care how much you made, what kind of clothes you wore, but only if you were a good person. Whenever Brittany would greet a friend or loved one....she would always give the biggest hugs. She was a light in a world full of darkness, and without her here....Earth is now a bit dimmer.
