

Mr Bruce Maurice Wells II

September 27, 1992 - May 3, 2021

Think of life as a movie with everyone doing their parts, and to say Bruce played his role well would be an understatement. He was the most loving son, caring brother, and friendly to all who met him. If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again, but you came here to do wonderful work, now God has you, and just know that you are missed and loved.

Bruce Maurice Wells II was born September 27, 1992 to Lenora Denice Wooden and Bruce Maurice Wells Sr.

He had a love for the water at an early age which led to him joining the Navy after graduating from Douglas Byrd high school. He loved his family dearly, and met no strangers leaving an everlasting impression in their hearts and minds. He enjoyed listening to music, having fun with his friends, always telling jokes, traveling, and exploring different places. He enjoyed life to the fullest, living his best without worries and always keeping his shoe game on point.

Preceded him in death was his grandparents, James and Alice Wells.

Left to hold his memories are his mother, Lenora Denice Wooten, father, Bruce Maurice Wells, Sr., two brothers: Jovaun Johnson and Thomas Wooden, one sister, Angela Wooden, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ Not going to disclose who i am specifically but i was a good friend of bruce, It hurts my heart even to this day. Bruce was genuinely one of the nicest people i knew. Never had anyone really close to me pass away and this one still stings. Your name lives on with me till i'm gone as well. PS Appreciate the fun laughs on our deployment. Best cook on the uss lassen.
