“ Grandma I love you so much . You gave me tough love but you made me to be strong like you . Every time I cried you told me to wipe them tears and stop crying and give me a hug cuz grandma love you , yu always told me you love me and told me I need to go see my mom . I will always remember I use to make you laugh , I will always remember you feeding me every time I was hungry . You always told me to stay in my bible. I remember when I said grandma i don't own a bible and you gave me one , the one i lay down with every night the one that was gifted to you and you passed it down to me . I love you Callie and I promise to continue to stay in my bible and I will pass it down to my grandkids . I love you baby and I'll see you again when it's my time to go 🥺
