

Mrs. Carolyn M. Thompson

April 27, 1956 - December 16, 2017

Mrs. Carolyn M. Thompson 61, passed away on December 16, 2017 at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Services are incomplete at this time.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ Our Creator has given us a wonderful hope in regard to our dead loved ones. In the Bible at Isaiah he had this promised recorded at Isaiah 26:19 to give us hope and provide comfort. There we read these words: " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." We can put confidence in that promise because it is given by the One who does not and cannot lie, Almighty God. He also is sadden by th death of humans and is motivated by Love to undo the pain and grief death brings. Yes, the enemy death will be conquered by the resurrection. Then tears of pain will become tears of joy. As you look forward to that time be comforted by the God of comfort as I have been.

DW - January 02, 2018 at 09:06 AM

RO

“ Sorry for your lost but please no at Zech 2:8 Comfort from knowing that GOD feels for us when we suffer.

Roberson - December 27, 2017 at 06:57 AM