“ When I think of Ms Kathy, I think of her and my mom together. They would hang out and lived across the street from one another. I think of seeing her at Old Navy always asking me how my family was, I will always remember how much I love her. I will miss her sincerely. But most of all the love she has for her kids and grand kids, they will forever be Blessed. I love you Ms Kathy

Lois, as I so foundly referred to you. You are my sister you were the brightspot of being a member of this family. We somehow had a connection that was unexplainable. I will forever cherish the memories that we shared and the ones we made. I guess it would be hard to be a member of a family for 30 years and not have an attachment to someone other than your spouse. I know you understand what I am going through right now. I make this promise to you that my children will always know Ms Kathy, I will share our memories with them. Keep on looking out for us, see you soon sis. Rosemary Carney
