

Mr. Charles M. Breedlove Jr.

May 12, 1961 - May 8, 2020

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the faith. 1 Timothy 4:7 Charles Myers Breedlove, Jr. was born to Charles Myers Breedlove, Sr. and Mary King in Halifax County, Virginia on May 12, 1961. God called him home on Friday May 8, 2020. During his school days he attended the public schools of Halifax County Virginia. He was baptized in 1995 at Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church and became a long-time member. He was employed in the Maintenance Department at Fayetteville State University for more than 20 years. He was a grill master, loved hosting family gatherings, and enjoyed venturing off to his favorite fishing piers. He leaves to cherish his memories his devoted wife of 40 years, Gladys Breedlove; Children: Charlene Jones (Dwayne) of Lumberton, NC; Charlena Avance, Kimberly Jones (Mitchell), Charles Myers Breedlove, III, Fayetteville, NC; His mother: Mary King; Three sisters: Elizabeth Delaney (Leon), Maxine Clark, Fayetteville, NC; Carolyn Breedlove, Whiteville, NC; Aunt Sylvia Gilmore, Baltimore, MD; His BFFs for life: Larry Donnell Breedlove, Harry James, Lydia Arrington; Seven grandchildren: Cierra, Daquanshaun, Jadea, Kelis, Zion, Kelsey, Kyndall; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

“ Praying for the family during these trying times. The Lord will comfort you. We will miss him

“ When I first met "Doc" he was the best yard crew that my dad and mom George & Louise Hunter relied upon. He was the man, the entire neighborhood respected. Now that I have become an elder, Doc was a refreshing end to many of my outdoor walks around E. E. Smith. He had designed his front yard like flower garden patio with the cross in the path. Sitting on his favorite bench with him, the most memorable moments were when he talked about his first time seeing Gladys. He said "She was the prettiest girl on that campus" and he fell in love hard. He was so proud of his son and that I wondered if he was dad's favorite. Ordinarily, fathers pick daughters and mothers pick sons. However, it was easy to see this father respected and loved his son. Even from that bench, he could tell me who in the neighborhood needed a prayer and would encourage me to visit them. So, late in my life, he became a friend who I will miss until we meet again before the throne of God where mercy and grace abounds.

“ So sorry to hear of Charles' death. Gladys, you know how proud I am of you and your family. I was so happy to see you and Charles take care of our cousin, Mr. Clement. You reached out when there was a need. I know that yard will not be as beautiful as it was when Charles landscaped it. If there is anything we can do, please reach out to us. John 11:25 Jesus reminds us that he is the resurrection. RIP Charles.
