

RET SGM Charles Warren Smith Sr.

May 16, 1943 - July 31, 2024

Charles Warren Smith, born on May 16, 1943, in Montgomery County, Alabama, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, dedication, and service. He was the cherished son of the late Ora Lee Bell and was the second eldest of five siblings. Charles received his early education at Booker T. Washington School in Montgomery before furthering his studies at Fayetteville Technical Community College in North Carolina.

Charles was a pillar of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church, where he was a devoted member for 47 years. His contributions were many and varied: he served on the Board of Trustees, participated in the Male Chorus and Mass Choir, and Deacon over Mission Circle Number Six and the Clothing Giveaway Ministry. Notably, he founded the Laymen's League at the church under the pastoral leadership of Pastor Perry B. Irby. On February 20, 2011, he was ordained as a Deacon by Dr. Carl E. Brinkley Jr. In April 2024, Charles was honored with the title of Deacon Emeritus, recognizing his lifelong commitment to the church.

For over 35 years, Charles was a passionate coach for Mt. Olive's youth and adult softball teams. His positive attitude, unwavering faith, and exemplary leadership made him a beloved figure and an inspiration to all who knew him. His impact on the community was profound, earning him deep respect and admiration.

Charles' life was a testament to his commitment to family and faith. He is survived by his devoted wife, Alice Smith, with whom he shared a lifetime of cherished memories. Together, they raised two sons: Charles W. Smith Jr. (Kenesha), and Xavier L. Smith. His family grew to include eleven beloved grandchildren: Sian, Carlos, Jonathan, Azaria, Xavier Jr., Santana, Azalea, Jordin, and Kourtney, Tyshawn, LenDaya. Charles is also remembered with love by his surviving sisters Gwendolyn Bell and Mildred Braswell (preceded in death by his loving sisters (Beverly McGhee, and LaPelza Riley), as well as a host of nieces and nephews. Family gatherings, holidays, and cookouts were especially precious to him.

Charles Warren Smith will be remembered as a devoted husband, loving father, grandfather, uncle and dedicated community leader whose legacy of service and faith continues to inspire. He will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
