“ may the finally take comfort in the hope provided by the Creator. Not only is he the Giver of life but is the Restorer of life. At Isaiah 26:19 he promises that the dead will live again. That the earth will let those powerless in death come to life. Yes. the resurrection hope does provide comfort in that we are assured of seeing our dead loved ones again. A promise that will become a reality because it is not the words of a mere man but the a guarantee that comes from the One who cannot and does not lie, Almighty God.

“ I cannot really know how you feel. I can only surmise. I do know that the Creator knows how you feel and will be there to provide the strength needed to endure this loss. By virtue of his Creatorship he has become our Father. So each death affectt Him as well. This us why he will support you and be your stronghold if allowed. May you take refuge in him and be comforted by the promise he made at Isaiah 26:19. Thus promise has given me hope, strength and power. Made it do the same for you.

“ Dear Family,
So sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. The loss of a loved one can be very hard on us but may you find comfort in the scripture found at Acts24:15,where it tells us that soon we will be reunited with our loved ones in the resurrection. May you find peace,joy and hope in knowing this promise!
