“ I remember when Christopher his brother his sister and his mom came to see me in San Antonio Texas the boys were only 10 and they built the clubhouse connected to the pecan tree they wrote on it and I believe red ink hotel California no girls allowed and their grandpa Walter helped him a little bit not much he supplied the wood the nails the hammer and the red paint they had so much fun that summer they were there. He'll be waiting for Christopher in heaven I just know he He is. I miss you Christopher and I will always love you forever in my heart and on my mind. Love grandma Brenda
