“ Sister Elaine and Family, may your precious memories of your "Warrior Man" always give you strength in the times that you feel like fainting. All I can say is gone too soon. May Lord of All Comfort, comfort your whole family. Your faith certainly exemplifies that the Lord is your Keeper. He will hold you up. With God's Great Love, Rev. Sandra Nettles

“ Our hearts are with you in the loss of your beloved husband, father, and shepherd. Rev. Summers was a tireless worker for the Lord—faithful in his calling, generous in spirit, and always dreaming of ways to uplift his church, community, and the world. His love for God, his family, and yes—his Cowboys—was undeniable. He will be deeply missed, but his legacy of faith, vision, and love lives on. Please know we are here for you and holding you close in prayer during this time.

“ ... Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.... (Revelation 14:13). Please accept our deepest condolences and know that our hearts and thoughts are with you. We are praying for your strength and comfort during this most difficult time. Rev. Summers was very special to us, and we will forever be blessed because of the spiritual wisdom and strong faith that he shared with us during our numerous worship services together over the years. One quote by Rev. Summers that is especially endearing to us is, "He brought us out of that, He'll bring us out of this."

“ Mrs. Summers you have my deepest condolences and sympathies on the return of your husband back to the loving arms of God. He always greeted me with a smile and an encouraging word and never let a moment go by without acknowledging my presence as I just stood in awe of his. Rev. Summers take your rest and keep the light on for me when I get there. Until we meet again.....R.I.H.P!!!!!!
