

Mr. Clarence Carmichael

October 17, 1939 - December 11, 2023

On Monday, December 11, 2023, God called Clarence home from labor to rest. He was born in Bladen County on October 17, 1939 to the late Mack and Laura Washington Carmichael. He departed his life at UNC Health Southeastern Hospital, Lumberton, North Carolina.

He worked at Tire, Sales and Service in Fayetteville until his health no longer allowed him to work. He liked being around family and friends to tell jokes, laugh and make others smile. He loved to work in his garden to watch his vegetables grow, especially his tomatoes. He also taught his son how to work on cars.

Clarence is preceded in death by his daughter, Laura Ann Carmichael and his brother, Lester Carmichael and sister, Villie Council.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Betty, his son, Clarence Junior and granddaughter, Aaliyah. A brother, William Carmichael and sister, Hattie McDonald. Three sisters-in-law, Susie King, Essie Russ and Evelyn (Charles) Hannah. One brother-in-law, James (Jim) McDonald and a host of nieces and nephews.
