

Mr. Clarence O'Neill McLaurin

November 28, 1964 - August 8, 2024

Clarence O'Neil McLaurin was born to Evangelist Doris and the late Amos Artis McLaurin on November 28, 1964. He transitioned from this earthly life on August 6, 2024. Clarence was educated in the Tar Heel school district and attended Job Corps to further his education. He was raised in the house of the Lord since childhood, attending Richardson Chapel Holy Bible Church of God. He was a devoted servant, and with anything he put his mind to, he could achieve it. He loved and cherished his family and loved his Lord and Savior, often singing praises to Him. Dressing was one of his qualities; when you saw Clarence, you saw a clean and sharp individual. He was recently ordained as a Deacon under the leadership of Apostle Lester Billings.

Clarence was preceded in death by his father and two siblings, Pamela, and Ricky McLaurin.

He leaves cherished memories to his loving mother, Evangelist Doris McLaurin; one son, Stephon Palmer; seven grandchildren; six brothers; two sisters; three aunts; one uncle; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A special thank you to Maurice Malloy for your loyalty and dedication to our loved one, Clarence McLaurin.

My condolences and prayers go out to Clarence family and friends. Clarence will truly be missed. He was always a very postive individual and a lot of fun to be around. My last time talking to him was a couple of weeks ago at Cracker Barrel for morning breakfast. He indeed love the lord and his conversations reflected that God was first in his life. Family please just note today that Clarence testimony was a great one and he would want you to know today is to be absent from the body is now his time to be present with the Lord and done wait until the battle is over but shout now.
