Memorial Reflections

Clarence Junior Smith departed from us on the 26th of March 2023. Junior was born in Dunn, North Carolina, July 7, 1982, to Janice Jones and Clarence Williams. He was known for his kind heartedness and keen sense of humor.

Junior always had a passion for cars, cooking and becoming an entrepreneur. Through his overwhelming dedication to his lifelong passions, he ultimately became an entrepreneur. During his time as an entrepreneur, he began buying and selling cars as well as fixer-up homes.

He is survived by his parents Janice Jones of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Clarence Williams of Dunn, North Carolina; his sisters, Latasha Smith and Jaquisha Smith; his brother, Terrance Smith all of Fayetteville, North Carolina; his children, Diamond Banwo, Asiaha Smith Myles, Kiamoira Smith, Kyamiah Smith; step children Kimora Cabrera, Antonio Cook, Deangela Mearite, Valentino Pugh Johnson; godchildren, Nigeria Bethune, Malik Johnson, Ayana Johnson and granddaughter, Bre' Asia Gilliesie; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Junior's soul will live on through his legacy, which was to love faithfully, work hard, play hard and trust in those he loved. He will live in our hearts and memories forever. Gone, but never forgotten.

“Well done my son, well done”.

“ June, you were the son I didn't give birth to. I truly appreciate the respect and love you showed me, Nutt and my grandkids. They loved their Uncle June. You were a true example of a real son, uncle, brother and friend. It broke my heart to learn that you were gone from us. Our laughs and conversations will always be in my heart. MA DUKES LOVE YOU
