

Mr. Clinton Lee "BaBa" Mainor

August 18, 1955 - July 7, 2022

Clinton Lee (BaBa) Mainor was born to late Conly and Nolla Mainor on August 18, 1955 in Raeford, North Carolina. He departed his life on Thursday July 7, 2022 at The Lower Cape Fear in Whiteville, North Carolina. He attended Cumberland County School System and graduated from FTC with his high school diploma. Later, he went into the military for a length of time. He discharged from the military and remained in Hawaii where he was employed for many years. Later, he returned to Fayetteville, North Carolina and worked for the Canada Dry Company. He left there and started to work for Hardees as a cook. Clinton gave his life to Christ and started to serve the Lord. He began to have health challenges and later had to stop working. He became disabled, but continued to go around talking about Christ.

Clinton (BaBa) Mainor is preceded in death by his parents, Conly and Nolla Mainor; his brother, John Mainor; niece, Patricia Rice; nephew, Charles Johnson; brother-in-law, Charles Johnson Sr.; and aunt, Easter Simmons.

Clinton (BaBa) Mainor leave his cherished memories: two sisters, Shirley Johnson and Joyce (James) Marshall both of Fayetteville, North Carolina; six nieces, Vontella (Greg) Love, Monet McLaurin, Adijah Battle, Latina Mainor, Nolla Mainor and Betty Mainor all of Fayetteville, North Carolina; two nephews, Marcus Battle and John Junior Mainor both of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one aunt, Betty

Davis of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one uncle, George Ray of Baltimore, Maryland; one great aunt, Easter Malloy of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one brother-in-law, Mark Battle of Clinton, Maryland; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
