“ To Debby, and the Winston/McLeod family. Sorry to hear of the passing of Clint. Just a note to you and the family, that I am praying for all of you doing his transition. May all of us keep the fun memories of Clint. I can remember when he was working at Sam supermarket. " shop Sam and save". Neckbones, 4 pounds dollar, chicken wings, 4 pounds a dollar. May God continue to bless and keep you.

Sincerely submitted Rev James E. Morrison, Sr

*I never thought we'd lose you so soon after Johnny and I'm so happy for the fact that we got to talk and laugh as I found my voice and courage to sing "Happy Birthday: to my one and only "Big Brother". I will now have to go find the many letters shared between us and "smile" as you've always left me feeling your unconditional love. You're with Daddy, Mary Jane and John now; I know it's a dance party and no doubt the guitar is playing as John sings... Rest in Heaven, thanks for the memories and I will see you again with all my love; your "Sis",
Puddin*
