“ Apostle Ford your family is my family. Let not your heart be troubled, for the Lord is with you. He sends you His peace and his great comfort. Take joy in his love and care. Even as the season is changing from winter to spring, so changes this season of your life. The Lord is sending you a refreshing rain, a rain that replenishes and restores. A rain that brings a new found strength. A rain that brings you new life. Rejoice in the joy of your salvation. Rejoice for the victories that have already been won. Rejoice in the God who orders your steps and plants you on a firm foundation. Rejoice in the God who defeats your enemies and causes you triumph over them. Even during a time of tremendous challenge, the Lord shall sustain and keep you. The Lord shall bless and favor you. The Lord shall increase and prosper you, and cause his face to shine upon you. He brings you into a season where the prayers prayed by your mother over you will manifest. As your agree with her prayers great comfort will come. She lives on not only with Jesus but with you also(through her desires being fulfill).

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

I likw to take this time to remember Sis. Corrine Ford and her family, to tell them a great warrior has made her report in glory. I remember when i was young, she would sing a couple of song, and one was twelve gate to the city, and Come in my room. I still hear them song today, but never could be song back in the days on 905 Folic St. or as they call Evan Hill. She will always be remember in my thought and the family will be in my prayer.
