

Evangelist Corine Hopps Torrey

January 22, 1936 - November 22, 2025

Corine Hopps Torrey, a pillar of her community, devoted evangelist, and loving matriarch, passed away peacefully on Saturday, November 22, 2025, at the age of 89 in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Born to Nero and Emma Hopps in Quincy, Florida, Corine moved to an early age to Port St. Joe, Florida, She later settled in Jacksonville, Florida, in 1978 before making her final home in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Corine was a woman of deep faith and tireless dedication to helping others. She successfully obtained her cosmetology license and used her skills to serve her community. Above all, she was a fervent evangelist, traveling and sharing the Lord's Gospel with passion and conviction.

Corine was widely known and deeply loved. She was a true pillar of the community, always extending a helping hand to whoever was in need. Her warmth, generosity, and genuine love for people were her defining characteristics, and she was loved immensely in return.

Corine Hopps Torrey was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Nero and Emma Hopps; her sisters, Liz Walker and Sarah Wagner; Willie Mae and her brothers, Nero Jr., Wiley, Frank and Jimmie Hopps.

She leaves a lasting legacy of faith and love to be cherished by her family, including: her sons, John Torrey and David Torrey; her daughter, Vickey Torrey; and her cherished grandchildren, David “Chris” Torrey Jr., Damonta L. Torrey, John M. Torrey, and Elijah K. Collins; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and friends

Let God be the Glory, I thank God that Corrine departed her life independently at age 89, she would have not had It any other way. At age 89, she was driving, cooking, taking care of business and active in all aspects of life. I Pray that God gives me the same opportunity, it's a Blessing. I give my condolences to her love ones and the family. RIP. Donna Pierce, I love you all 🙏❤️
