September 28, 1960 - July 6, 2024

Cynthia Gwen "Ice" Newsome, 63, of Oak City, NC, passed away on July 6, 2024. Born on September 28, 1960, in Baltimore, Maryland, she was the daughter of Linwood Newsome and the late Sophia Collins.

Cynthia, affectionately known as "Ice", had a profound impact on many through her 31 years of service in the U.S. Army. Her dedication to the military, particularly as an airborne nurse, reflected her resilient and caring nature. She was a cornerstone of strength and compassion, both in her professional and personal life.

After her distinguished military career, Cynthia continued to serve her community through her involvement in various sororities. She was deeply committed to providing leadership and guidance, fostering strong bonds and sisterhood among her sorority sisters. Her contributions to these organizations were not just acts of service but a testament to her belief in the power of community support and personal connections.

Cynthia pursued her education at Hampton Institute and Morgan State University after attending Collington Square primary school and Lake Clifton Eastern High School. Her academic and professional paths showcased her commitment to learning and growth, which she balanced with unparalleled dedication to her family and friends.

Described by her daughter, Cia Faulkner, as a “strong, caring, beautiful, and smart human being,” Cynthia was a beacon of positivity and love. She was a fighter who never let adversity deter her from pursuing her dreams, always with a smile that could light up any room. Her unwavering support and love were the foundations of her family, inspiring those around her to strive for greatness and believe in true love.

In addition to her daughter, Cia, Cynthia is survived by her brother, Tony Newsome, and her father, Linwood Newsome and a host of sisters, cousins, and close relatives. Her legacy of love, courage, and resilience will forever be cherished and remembered by all who knew her.

Cynthia's life will be celebrated in a ceremony that reflects her spirit and dedication.
