“ To The Family Of Sis. Daisy Ann Browning. It's With Deepest Sympathy That I Am Sending You This Message Of Deep Felt Heart Condolences. I Have Known Daisy All Of My Life And I Was Proud To Be Her Cousin. Our Parents Took Work Literally And Quite Often A Little Too For, But Of Course We Couldn't Breath It To Them. I Can See Us In The Blueberry and Strawberry Fields First Eating The Very Tasty Fruits Followed By Filling Our Cups and Flats To Be Weighed And Our Tickets Stamped. We Would Always Have A Clean Joke Or Two To Tell My Cousins Just To Keep Each Others Spirits Up While Dealing With The Weather For That Day. Daisy Was A Very Kind Cousin To Me And What A Fantastic Cook. Because Of The Real Love That She Had For Everyone That She Came Intouch With Made You Know Whose Side She Was On. To Me It Was On The Side Of Our Savior. Daisy I Say Farewell To You Because We Will Meet Again On The Other Side Where The Wicked Shall Cease From Troubling And The Weary Shall Be At Rest. You Have Finished Your Course On This Side And Know You Have Joined Our Family And All The Saints That Have Gone Home Before Us. The Holy Spirit Shall Give Us Peace and Comfort Until We Meet Again. Farewell Our Beautiful Daisy Farewell.
