“ Dajuan i miss you so much . Your smile, your laugh, your tightest hugs when you knew i needed them the most, our talks, the dance you'd do when you were happy, the way your presence in a room would bring instant smiles . I'm in so much pain . I don't know how to keep going but i promised you i wouldn't give up . We have too many memories but these past 2 years with you were the best times of my life . You had a heart like i've never seen before and such a beautiful and genuine soul ❤️ . You taught me so so much and i will never forget it . Thank you for giving me our handsome son 😊 i will make sure he remembers the kind hearted person you were and how much you loved him, i'll show him pictures and videos of you everyday . I love you! I love you. I'll see you again love 💔 God please wrap your arms around us all as we try and get through this very hard time .

“ I would like to take time to express my condolences to the Family of DaJuan McDonald. I am Mar'Que Nichols' grandmother. DaJuan was just over to the house the week before. Mar'Que took it very hard because they were close and He would spend the night sometimes at my house. I am truly sorry for your loss and I want to come by and bring something for the family. We are all shocked as my daughter Dimitria Carmichael and my little grandkids are. When he would come over, the kids would say "What's up Deebo." But God knows all things. Hold on family for God will never leave you nor forsake you. He will help you to pull this all together when it seems to not make sense. Look to him for strength and guidance, and God will never lead you wrongly. DaJuan is resting in the arms of the Lord now, and no one can hurt him any more. Trust Him when you don't know what to do, Mother, brother, sister, father, and so forth, and He will make it all right. God will take care of everything. God bless you and your family. “ My dear dear Dajuan I remember when you were a toddler, I would visit and you would not let me out of your sight. You would grab my car keys and hold onto them, and no matter how little space there was on the sofa you would squeeze in next to me. And of course when I was leaving you you would look at me with those big eyes and say let's go. And off to my house we would go! I remember when we would listen to oldies and blues driving across the Gandy Bridge. I remember our favorite blues song "Friday" by Sir Charles. You wanted to hear it over and over again. Well it's another Friday, but you're not here, I'll play our song and I'll remember. You are forever in my heart. Auntie grandma loves you ,I will remember💕💕💕

“ Words can't explain the hurt I feel. Just 3 weeks ago you were standing in front of my crib talking to me. The day we lost you cuz I was talking to you that morning and you asked me when was I getting off work and I said I wasn't going and you said ok you were coming to see me! Your physically not here but your memories will live on!!!

“ I really can't believe this is real. I don't know how to feel or what to say because I really don't want this to be real. Life can be so unfair. I never thought I would be saying my goodbyes to you so soon in life. I'm really hurting to write this. The family is in so much pain right now! I LOVE YOU Debo!
