“ Darrell was a cool guy. It was a pleasure meeting him during my days of training in truck driving school at SCC. Take your rest, driver. Gone but not forgotten.

“ To Sister Michelle and the Moore Family,

Though our hearts have been deeply saddened by the loss of Brother Darrell Moore, we also rejoice at how God allowed all of our paths to cross and how Darrell touched our lives. Over the years, Darrell became a beloved and important part of our church in so many ways. He was always willing to step in and offer help whenever and wherever he was needed; without a whole lot of noise. In God's infinite wisdom, He saw that Darrell had done enough; all of his earthly assignments were complete. Though we will miss his quiet presence, Brother Darrell's body, mind, and soul can finally be at rest and at peace. Family, may you all be encouraged that God's plan is always for our good, because God is good. We pray for your comfort. May Brother Darrell's memory always be a blessing in our hearts and to many others.
