

Mr. Darrian Lionell Washington

January 14, 1978 - July 16, 2023

Darrian Lionell Washington, 45, of Fayetteville, North Carolina was born January 14, 1978 to his mother, Deloris Ann Denmark Washington. He was called home on Sunday, July 16, 2023.

He attended E. E. Smith High School, and found his calling working for the Crown Coliseum doing change overs. He also took pride in caring for his mother, Deloris. Over the years of his dedication to his work, he touched so many different souls and they grew to love him as well. Darrian was an open book and had his own way of showing love to the ones he loved and who loved him. His heart was pure gold and he had ways of lifting spirits when he walked into a room. Whether it was talking junk or making jokes, he was always a lively spirit. Darrian was nonetheless a heaven sent gift from God and made an impact on so many people's lives. He was fearless and independent, yet had a sensitive and compassionate side. He was a giver; if he could help at the time, he would. He always took time out to call and check up on his mother, children and grandchildren. Outside of work, if you seen black (Darrian) you always seen his wife, Shelia Washington. They were two peas in a pod with an extraordinary love!

He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Shelia Washington; children/stepchildren, Teaisa Nahgahgwon, Jutoya Nahgahgwon and Jaquawn Nahgahgwon; mother, Deloris Ann Denmark Washington; one sister, Michelle Denmark Ray all of Fayetteville, North Carolina; a host of grandchildren, niece, nephews, cousins, close friends and co-workers, who all loved Darrian wholeheartedly.

Darrian will always be remembered for his can do, don't care attitude (no more free lollipops lol) and his personality that put smiles on some many faces.
