“ Darryl and I were co-workers at Smithfield until the day he left. We joked and laughed to help get through the day. To the family your love is genuine but God loved him best to grant him his wings to remove all the pain. Take your rest my friend ❤️

“ Darryl were can I start. I meet you at Clayton in Res Springs working. You was the sweetest person and had a big heart. The last time I spoke to you it was at you mom house when O gave her the pillow for her son Moe. Now I have to give her one in memory of you. Missing you is going to be hard but you are in Gods hands now. No more strokes. Take your rest. Forever in my heart ”
