“ January 7th changed our lives forever. Although we were able to spend 7 full days with you, my heart still does not understand. You were my only biological child & I love you with everything in me. Daily I feel like I come to grips with the fact that you are no longer here. No more hugs, no more kisses on the jaw, no more calls in the middle of the night. My baby. My Das, my browned eyed baby. I miss you!
